

SITUATIONS

Loiseau, Benoit. Excerpt from “8 Highlights From Miami Art Week”, The New York Times Style Magazine, December 5, 2018.

8 Highlights From Miami Art Week

What to know (and what not to miss) at the fairs.

By Benoit Loiseau

Dec. 5, 2018

Queer and Feminist Art Prevails at NADA

Across the Venetian Causeway, the independent art fair NADA returns to Ice Palace Studios for its 16th year, bringing together 125 galleries and a notable variety of queer and feminist works. Mrs. Gallery, from Queens, N.Y., shares a solo presentation of new large-scale wooden sculptures and vibrant watercolors by the artist Chris Bogia, a founder of the Fire Island Artist Residency. Meanwhile, Fierman and Situations show works by Jimmy Wright, known for his figurative paintings depicting the sexual culture of the 1970s, and later the floral still lifes he made during the height of the AIDS crisis. Hannah Barry Gallery, based in London, presents the work of the French artist Marie Jacotey, whose expansive textile installation “Morning Defeats & Gloria Victis” evokes the curtained back rooms of clubs and boudoirs.

NADA is open from Dec. 6 to Dec. 9 at Ice Palace Studios, 1400 North Miami Avenue, Miami, newartdealers.org.